

Revocation of Ordinance 58 (Election of Member of Court by the Student Body)

At its meeting on 7 September 2017 the Court noted that Ordinance 58 (Election of a Member of the Court by the Student Body) was now redundant following the approval and implementation of revisions to Statute 9 (The Court) to address the requirements of the Higher Education Governance (Scotland) Act 2016.

Noting the urgent and uncontentious nature of the changes, the Court approved the revocation of Ordinance 58 (Election of a Member of the Court by the Student Body) under the terms of the proviso to article 16.2 of the Charter, such that it be passed at a single meeting, subject to the concurrence of the Senate.
